Enoteca, prodotti tipici

In a warm, welcoming setting in the heart of Madonna di Campiglio, Francesco and Angelo have selected the best grappa and the finest wines for you, creating a vast assortment of more than 1000 labels.

Trentino wines and grappas are the main protagonists, so that you can experience the products of the wine tradition of our region, together with more recent proposals. The great wineries with centuries of experience are joined by a selection of young, emerging producers. There is also ample space for the most famous Italian wines, along with a fine selection of wines from France and throughout the world.

In the boutique next to the wine bar, you can find delicious delicacies and tasty local products selected for you by Carmen. Devote some time to good food, letting go to the discovery of the delicacies of the Trentino region and some true culinary gems from Italy and abroad.

To sample the local cheeses and deli meats, as well as dumplings and strangolapreti, the deli case offers a vast assortment of quality foods. Every day, grappas and at least one of the delights on offer may be sampled.
